CNM: The Frist Foundation Awards of Achievement ~ Innovation in Action Award

This award recognizes organizations that have developed innovative ways to carry out their missions, either on a large or small-scale -- innovations that go beyond the usual concepts of management or service delivery. This category encompasses programs that help fulfill the mission or innovations that improve the management of the agency through streamlining or reducing costs of operations. Organizations applying for this award should consider what makes their program unique and describe it with passion and creativity. An award of $25,000 will be presented to the winner, and $7,500 each will be awarded to the two finalists at the Center for Nonprofit Management's Salute to Excellence Awards.

Requirements of the Frist Foundation Awards of Achievement:

- Must be an organization that has been a 501(c)(3) for at least three years and is a member of CNM providing significant services to residents of Middle Tennessee.
- Local chapters of national organizations may apply, provided the chapters are locally managed, have their own tax exempt status, and have full financial information available on a local basis.
- In keeping with The Frist Foundation's general funding guidelines, hospitals, nursing homes, and retirement homes are not eligible.
- Previous winners of any of the three Awards of Achievement are not eligible to reapply for three years. (For example, if the agency was a Frist award winner in 2010, the agency is eligible re-apply for a Frist award in 2014.)
- Previous Frist award finalists may reapply, but not for the same Frist award for three years. (For example, if the agency was a Frist finalist in 2010, the agency is eligible re-apply for the same award in 2014.)
- The program or project nominated for the Innovation in Action award must have been launched no earlier than January 2009 and must have been in existence long enough to document a history and/or results.

1. Describe the service delivery or cost-streamlining program and clearly define how it is innovative. (Limit response to 200 words) *
2. How does the innovation permit you to further the mission of your organization and impact the lives of people you serve? Give specific examples as applicable. (Limit response to 200 words.) *
3. Was this idea originated by your organization, by another, or by an organization or association with which you are affiliated? How can this program be replicated or adapted by other organizations? (Limit response to 100 words.) *
4. How do you measure the performance of the new service delivery or cost-streamlining program? What have been the specific, measurable and/or observable results achieved over time? What are the projected results for the next three years? (Limit response to 200 words.) *
5. What were the greatest management challenges you encountered and met successfully in carrying out the program or project? (Limit response to 200 words.) *

In applying for the Salute to Excellence Awards, we have carefully read the requirements for submitting the nomination. We understand that this entry will be reviewed by the award panelists to ensure all requirements are met. We also understand that a panel of independent judges will evaluate entries and choose the finalists and a winner. As a part of this process, we understand we may be asked to provide additional information and may be visited by representatives of the judging panel. Furthermore, we are aware that any submissions and attachments become the property of the Center for Nonprofit Management and may be publicized as a part of promotions surrounding the Salute to Excellence Awards.*
