

TrustCore CEO of the Year Award

Award Summary:

CNM's 'Salute to Excellence' TrustCore CEO of the Year Award recognizes the importance of executive leadership in an organization's achievement of mission-related results.

Finalists Awards:

An award of $5,000 will be presented to the category winner. This amount is to be split equally between the individual and the organization ($2,500 to CEO and $2,500 to organization). $1,000 will be presented to each of the two finalists. This amount is to be split between the individual and the organization ($500 to CEO and $500 to organization).

Requirements for the CEO of the Year Award:

- Must be an organization that has been a 501(c)(3) for at least three years and a member of CNM, and provides significant services to the Middle Tennessee area.
- Local chapters of national organizations may apply, provided the chapters are locally managed and have financial information available on a local basis.

Previous Winners and Finalists:

- Previous winners of this award are not eligible to reapply for three years. (For example, if the agency was a winner in 2018, the agency is eligible to re-apply in 2022.)
- Previous finalists for this award may reapply, but not for this award for one year. (For example, if the agency was a finalist in 2020, the agency is eligible to re-apply for this award in 2022.)

Questions:

We welcome responses relevant to the unique challenges of the pandemic and its effects on our community. As you approach your application, specific examples will help our panelists get to know your nominee best.

CNM believes in creating an equitable, connected community. We aspire to be a brave, inclusive, collaborative space for nonprofits, their partners, and the communities they serve. If applicable, we encourage responses that reflect how diversity, equity and inclusion may have informed your nominee's approach to being a CEO and leader.
